

NEW YORK STATE CANAL CONFERENCE

ONE WATER: NEW YORK HARBOR

Join us for the
2018 New York State Canal Conference
October 14-16, 2018

The 2018 conference will celebrate the role that New York Harbor has played in the success of the State's historic inland waterway system. As New York State continues to celebrate the Erie Canal Bicentennial, New York Harbor is the perfect venue to commemorate the Centennial of the Erie Barge Canal.

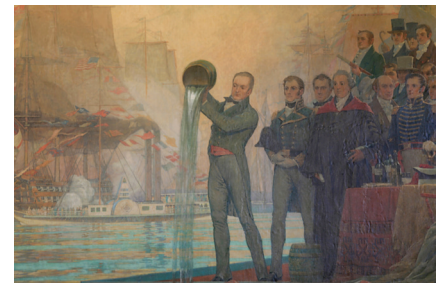

Conference Headquarters: Hilton Garden Inn, Staten Island

Learn about New York's maritime/canal history just as Staten Island completes landmark projects along its waterfront, especially the New York Wheel and ongoing improvements to the St. George Waterfront

Explore outstanding canal heritage sites on both Staten Island as well as Manhattan and the Greater New York Harbor

Mobile Workshop Sites under consideration include:

- Staten Island Ferry/South Street Seaport/ Erie Barge Canal Terminal
- Arthur Kill Ship Graveyard/ Conference House
- Sailors' Snug Harbor Culture Center/ The Noble Maritime Collection

"The Marriage of the Waters" by C.Y. Turner, 1905

Visit
newyorkcanals.org
for more information.

Registration opening in April 2018!